

Dayar

Dayar is an engaging, intelligent 17-year old. He loves to cook and often makes dinner for everyone in the home. He does well in school and plans to go to college. He plays on the basketball team at school and loves to shoot hoops and play pick-up games with others. On the weekends, Dayar likes to go to church. His church activities are important to him and he puts them ahead of other extracurricular activities on the weekend. Dayar has had a lot of disappointment, but his resilient spirit impresses all those who come in contact with him. He has never given up hope that he will one day be adopted, and wants—very much—to be a part of the process.

For more information about Dayar, contact:
Tina Bullock at (301) 422-5118 or tbullock@adoptionstogether.org

The Permanency Opportunities Project is a partnership between DC Child and Family Services Agency and Adoptions Together.